Dear Leaders and Co-Workers in International Ministries,

We are delighted to hear that International Ministries is celebrating the 210th anniversary this May. On behalf of CCC&TSPM, we would like to extend our sincere congratulations.

It is truly with the grace of the Lord that International Ministries has been developed for 210 years. We believe that after more than two centuries' efforts and endeavours, International Ministries has grown to be a society of great maturity and wisdom. We are very grateful for what God has led you on the path to share his Good News and will pray that you will make even greater contributions to the mission of the globe.

For decades, CCC&TSPM have enjoyed the fellowship with International Ministries, which is the result of mutual respect and support. Over the years, we have exchanged visits of delegations and had cooperation in various ministries. We are very thankful for the support that you have provided for us, and it is our hope that the bond and partnership between us will be continued and strengthened in the future.

Congratulations again on your 210th anniversary. May the Lord continue to guide and bless you and wish your on-line event a great success!

Sincerely yours,

Wu, Wei
