A Life of Sacrificial Giving

INGRID ROLDÁN-ROMÁN

SUPPORT PLEDGED

PANAMA

Thank you so much for your support, prayers and love for the work God has been doing through Ingrid Roldan-Roman. Many of you know of her deep love for the people of Panama and Costa Rica and how she has sacrificially given her own funds and her whole life to build homes, provide educational opportunities, meals and the love of Jesus for the people God has placed in her care. You may also know of her remarkable God-given strength and love, especially to the children and families she serves, as she continues to show the love of Jesus to "the least of these." She continues a vital tutoring program, provides food, clothing, and educational supplies to children, some who sleep on dirt floors and without basic necessities. Ingrid continues to sacrificially give all of herself to show Jesus to these wonderful people. Thank you so much for your partnership with God's work through her life.

As her Mission Partnership Team convener and on behalf of Christ who has given us so much, I would like to ask you to partner with me in making a sacrificial commitment of love for an amazing missionary and woman of God. For one who gives so sacrificially, it would be wonderful if for her remaining years of service she did not have to worry about meeting her monthly financial support goal. Let's allow her to focus fully on her God-given calling to love the people of Panama and Costa Rica. With your partnership, please be part of Ingrid's team and the love of Jesus shared through your gifts of love.

As the Spirit leads, you can respond by going to the International Ministries web page and making a monthly commitment for Ingrid's ministry. Or you can contact International Ministries and set up a credit card or automatic debit by calling 610-768-2323. If you have other questions, you may contact IMdonorservices@internationalministries.org.

May the Lord bless you and keep you in the days ahead.
